THE LAST DAY.

to Guests.

The third and last day's sessions of the State Convention Y. M. C. A. of Ken ucky were the hest of all, both in poin of attendance and interest manifested.

of attendance and interest manifested.
At 9:30 Saturday morning Rev. Henry
F. Williams conducted the "Bible Hour;"
at 10:30 "The Needs, Methods and Results of State Supervision" was discussed by H. O. Williams of New York, and at 11 Messrs. W. H. Morriss of Baltimore and John L. Wheat of Louisville talked on "The Coming Year in Kentucky."

At 2:30 p. m. Rev. Henry F. William again conducted the "Bible Hour," and at 3.30 Mr. R. E. Woods of Louisville presented "The Needs, Aims and Results of Association Educational Work." Then came the Question Drawer.

At 7 p. m. the Song Service was the first on the program, and at 7:15 The Students of the World United" was dls Students of the World United" was dis-cussed. At 75 canne the most interesting service of the meeting—"The Value of the Railroad Young Men's Christina Az-sociation; to the Corporations, to the Men," led by Rev. H. O. Williams of New York. There were several em-ployes of the various railroad systems of the United States in attendance, and their restinguises were that this knock of the testimonies were that this branch of the testimonies were that this branch of the work is indispensable; and these men were undoubtedly in earnest, as their countenances showed that they were traily different men from those who are und partakers of the blessings of this de partment. Yesterday morning at 8:30 a consecra-tion services was held at the First Presive.

tion service was held at the First Preshy terian Church, led by Rev. H. O. Williams, after which the usual services at the various Churches took place.

At 3 p. m. the meetings for men at the First Presbyterian Church, for boys at the Y. M. C. A. Parlor and for women at the Christian Church were well attended. The men's meeting was preceded by a brief song service at the corner of Third and Market streets.

Last night the farewell meeting was held at the First Baptist Church to a packed house, all the Churches of the city uniting. State Secretary Henry E Rosevear led the meeting, while quite a number spoke on the Y. M. C. A in ger eral; its work and possibilities thro out the state, and at the close of the addresses a collection was taken up for the pushing of the state work, after which the Doxology was sung and the Seven teenth Annual State Convention of Y. M. C. A. had passed into history.
